Cemetery By-law Reminder

St. Ann's and St. Patrick's Cemeteries would like to offer a reminder on the cemetery by-laws regarding flowers and decorations.

St. Ann's Cemetery only: Flowers and decorations are permitted only during the six designated flower weeks (Mother's Day, Father's Day, Canada Day, Cemetery Mass, Labour Day, and Thanksgiving), as well as on the day of burial and for up to three days following. Items placed outside these times will be removed to allow for grass cutting, whipper snipping around monuments and general maintenance.

St. Patrick's Cemetery only: Flowers are permitted only in saddle arrangements on top of headstones or on shepherd's hooks so they remain off the ground. The only exception is at the time of burial, when flowers may be placed on the ground for up to three days. Ground-level decorations or deteriorated flowers and stands will be removed to facilitate cemetery maintenance.

Both Cemeteries: Glass containers and open flames, including all candles, are prohibited and will be removed immediately. If you have any questions regarding cemetery by-laws, please contact the cemetery office.

Visit of the Relics of St. Bernadette from the Sanctuary of Lourdes

We are please to announce that St. Ann's will host the Relics of St Bernadette Monday August 10th from 9am – 7pm in the church. Parishioners are invited to attend daily mass and private prayer with the relics present.
